GENERAL POLITICAL NEWS

General Satisfaction with Alger's Nomination for Governor in Michigan.

Fight for the United States Senatorship from Colorado Already Begun.

The Parties—Congressional Nominations Made at Various Points—Illinois.

MICHIGAN

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 12.—[Special.]—The Democratic nomination has made it a point to secure from the country editors and business men of the Republican Convention the choice of the party nominations. The candidates are, with almost unanimity, Democrats and Greenbackers. Then the party can put up a candidate of its own and not be charged with bolting. The political managers have made no effort to defeat Alger, and have appeared to be satisfied that the nomination of candidates for Upper Peninsula and upper part of the Lower Peninsula will give that representation in the next Legislature which will secure the election of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Ferry. It is also the opinion of many that the Democrats will have the majority of the Legislature, although the Democratic vote will be much heavier than it was last fall. The Democrats are making a vigorous fight, and have organized every township in the State. The Democratic State Committee has also been very active, and has sent out a large number of speakers. The Democrats are also making a vigorous fight in the Upper Peninsula, and have organized every township in the district. The Democratic State Committee has also been very active, and has sent out a large number of speakers. The Democrats are also making a vigorous fight in the Upper Peninsula, and have organized every township in the district.

Chief Justice Elbert's decision will have a great effect on the political situation in this State.

The cholera is making great ravages at Alexandria, Et., and the adjacent country.

The Connecticut Democratic State Convention will be held the 1st of September.

The forty-second annual State Fair of Illinois will open Sept. 8 on the grounds it occupied last year.

James Keogh, a brother of ex-Congressman Keogh of Fayetteville, S. C., committed suicide at that place yesterday.

Chatham, the engineer, pronounces in favor of the Congo country being declared a free State. He discovers England's opposition to the project.

Alexander Hunt has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Twelfth Ohio District. Mr. Hunt was elected in 1880 by 110 majority.

Gen. Lew's policies and plans are not approved by the Germans. The Berlin correspondent (Bismarck's organ) to a recent article discusses the withdrawal and arrogance of England.

There were only two deaths from cholera at Toulon Wednesday night. The epidemic seems to be extending to the small towns of Southern France, but is dying out at Toulon and Marseilles.

Parliamentary Report of Great Britain is not satisfied with the present postal arrangements between the United States and England. He proposes to modify them for the better.

The next reunion of the Army of the Tennessee will be held at Chicago the second Wednesday and Thursday of September, 1884. Gen. Sherman was elected President of the organization yesterday.

John L. Smith has announced himself as a candidate for the United States Senatorship from Colorado, and has told his friends Hon. Horace Chaffee is also a candidate. Senator Hill hopes to be reflected.

Owen Fahey, who was arrested at Beaver Dam, Wis., Wednesday on the charge of eloping with a 13-year-old girl, and himself to the lock-up of that place. There was two bottles taken through the mails.

Park Interviews had by The Tribune correspondent at Detroit with prominent Republicans of Michigan it may be mentioned that Gen. Alger will receive a cold Republican support in the Wolverine State.

Prince Bismarck and Count Kalnoky, the Austrian Premier, have had an interview at Varzin. It is now generally understood that Germany and Austria are to stand on most questions of international policy.

J. J. Metcalf, a railroad attorney, has been nominated for State Senator by the Democrats of the Forty-fourth Illinois District. Edward Kelley and J. L. Carlington were nominated for Representatives.

Thomas B. Reed was nominated for Congress yesterday by the Republicans of the Twelfth Indiana District. The district is very close. Lowry, the present Democratic Representative, was elected in 1882 by 170 majority.

H. C. Dulin of Hamilton County was nominated for Congress yesterday by the Republicans of the Third Tennessee District, now represented by Congressman Lloyd, Democrat, who was elected in 1882 by 1,000 majority.

An executive letter to the Michigan & Ohio Railroad has issued from the head-quarters (Detroit), Mich., yesterday morning. The engineer and the conductor were not early injured. The passengers escaped as if by a miracle.

Gen. Oliver, who is a Democratic Congressman from West Virginia, has been spending himself and advocating the cause of protection by proclaiming that colored voters must be imported into the State, and asserting that none of them would be allowed to vote. He has gone back to the "shotgun policy," but West Virginia is too far North for the Brigadiers and Gilmer's friends to indulge in it with impunity.

Gen. Lucas has had an unfortunate experience of all points in the Fort Scott district which he has stopped on the way over much. Cinnis gathered up every stolen and unlikely granted one of the horses of the war for house liberty.

At the banquet given to the crews of the Vincennes by the ladies at Lake Minnetonka last evening speeches were made by Gov. Hubbard of Minnesota, Gen. Chetlain of Chicago, Bishop Ireland, Ex-Senator Sawyer, Ignatius Donnelly, and Col. Jackson of Chicago.

U. S. Worthington has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Fourth district. Julius C. Burr has been nominated by the Republicans. The district is doubtful. Mr. Worthington was elected by about one majority in 1882. Mr. Burr will be elected this year.

A case of the extradition caused by Count Schouvaloff, the Russian ambassador to Berlin, has excited very positively in the French. A favorable extradition excited $100,000, votes and antipathies brought $71,000, and the Irish Mr. Blaine extradition got $200,000 for more business.

Democratic editors are trying to perfect an organization with the Irish Tribune are not allied with the Welsh. The editors, we might be mistaken, pronounce their efforts successful, but as they have not been able to give satisfactory proof of it, and their body have intimations that they have been lying.

The Missouri Democrats completed their State ticket yesterday morning. The complete men are: Governor, Gov. Marmaduke; Lieutenant-Governor, A. P. Matthews; Secretary of State, W. E. Mitchell; Treasurer, James B. Lamar; Attorney-General, O. D. Foster; Railroad Commissioner, W. G. Fleming.

Democratic reports from various parts of Illinois have received at Republican headquarters in the city yesterday. There both have been numerous from the leaving the west to the States ranks. Cleveland excites no enthusiasm among the Democrats, who, believing that they are perfectly free this year, are going to vote in accordance with their own opinions. They will not vote for Cleveland.

The Chicago grain markets were active and weak yesterday, owing to larger receipts and only a light export demand. Provisions were dull but firm. No transpired with Wednesday, pork closed steady, but 25c more lower, more 2½ eight higher, wheat 1½ cents lower, corn 1¼ cents lower, oats ¼ cent lower, and barley is next higher.

The Fulton County Democrat, published at Lewistown, Ill., informs a Brooklyn republican correspondent Cleveland and Hendricks and advises its subscribers to vote for St. John and Daniels. The Democrat is satisfied of Cleveland's moral depravity and cannot support him. It states that the campaign charge in behalf of Cleveland are an insult to the moral intelligence of the American people. So they are.

Queen Victoria, through Mr. Gladstone, prorogued the British Parliament yesterday. Her Majesty regrets that the Franchise Bill did not pass (that is to say, the Gladstone Government regrets it), informs at the interest of diplomatic relations between Russia and Turkey, laments the failure of the European conference on Egyptian affairs, and rejoices at the manifestations of loyalty in Ireland, which are most admirable.

A terrific storm struck south yesterday by the success in the Province (Ky.) Jail to escape. A prisoner named Wiehl led the escape. They struck down the guard, and possessed themselves of the keys, which they used freely. James Coughlan, who is serving a fourteen-years' term for shooting a man who refused his addressed effective service to suppress the outbreak. The prisoner, a notorious moonshiner, escaped.

Some days ago the Indianapolis Sentinel, one of the most serious and malicious of the Democratic organs, printed the infamous statement that James G. Blaine, while a cabinet officer of Garfield's in the winter there, undertook a young lady and had to Biaine, whither he was followed by her father, who compelled him to marry her at the muzzle of a shotgun. As Mr. Blaine has been married but once the young lady, of course, is to be present with one of the best and proper of women. With righteous indignation Mr. Blaine has promptly telegraphed the Editor-in-Chief of the Indianapolis Times, requesting him to bring suit immediately in the United States Court for libel. Mr. Blaine has retained counsel and the suit will be pushed to trial as fast as the rules of the court will permit. It may be added to this connection that a Democratic correspondent in this city has also published substantially the same story, but in a modified and somewhat subdued form, so that it might avoid libel of that intimidation to avoid an action against it.

The action of the Portland is shown by its printing the libel after Mr. Henry Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal had brought suit for damages and prosecuted Beck to be without foundation. There never was a more vicious and unclean slander set afloat, and Mr. Blaine will receive the gratitude of the whole country, without regard to party, for the prompt manner in which he has discharged his manly courage to stand up and smite good his malicious falsehood. If he fails to do so the world deserve contempt.

A new relative for Mr. Grover Cleveland to behave Mr. Blaine's character, if he is an innocent man. Let him call to constants to the bar of justice and make them establish the truth of their charges or pay the penalty. Let the libels with the members of Congress, who met at the secret caucus in the Democratic Convention in Chicago. That in this was the Buffalo Telegraph, an independent Democratic newspaper, which charged that he had enticed a widow, that he had a child by her, that he treated her harshly and even cruelly, that he improperly lost to an insane asylum, and finally refused with her an independent sum of money. That he was his alleged home wrecker, the Buffalo Courier, which gave publicity to the still more exciting statement that Gov. Cleveland, in company with two or three married men, had shared the favors of the widow, and that to silence the correspondence of the particulars never rather than expose his marital shamefulness. The refusal of to pay a less widow of good character, is stated by the Courier a widow of bad character; and Cleveland, instead of being trusted and kept by her, according to its story, was acting with her in a lawful manner to secure peace with two married men!

Then for this man Blaine, C. Eng, who not only made the most allegations, but proved that he (Cleveland) had confessed them to him! If Grover Cleveland is an honorable man, never was man so badly wronged! If these charges are untrue, no punishment would be too heavy for the Democrats who put him in circulation.

A Treason.

"Cleveland, Hendricks, and a change" is now the war-cry of the Democracy, as was "Tilden, Hendricks, and reform" in 1876. Reform was not a winning cash, & question. Mr. Hendricks attempted to make "a change" prominence in the fight about other humbling the last of the Bible. The country remembers that when the war, and grave both dishonest and patriotic over the necessity of keeping over the books in the Democratic Party touched up and carefully acted out the influence of Democrats of Rome in the service of the Government since 1861, by smuggling and misrepresentation here. Although he had all of these and known it, he became every Rome that there are other traits contributing to achieve which can be proved and the proprietors brought to justice only by having the books now in the Democratic for examination. The country expects but little of it. In other words, there is a very small effort on the part of the Democratic press and cause, but in the "entire budget" of Indiana, to make it appear that the best men of the Government & conducted society and that the books are closed to the people, and especially to the Democracy.

Subjoined as the only means to the Bible-ing rule. It appears with some force as a matter that of voters, who, while they are perfectly sure they are honest Republicans and not at once that they enlighten are. They are of the same mind, if they have a belief to their parties, fear that every one they meet is going to cut them of it, who never like their best—if that gentlemanly name to a record, will like they will be ostracized in the minds of every other man, and their every voice about the house hitherto the approach of daughters.

The unfortunate truth is, that the participation of late by thousands of citizens during the last four years is less than vital to the interest of the country. The Democratic press never more eminently and earnestly and indicted one more honestly than at the present time.

It is but very possible but may for the Democratic House of Representatives to secure control such in the days of old. It does know that it is the case. It has but power to bring before it all others engaged in subverting the economy and authorized to disallow them and subject them to the most critical examination. It may see every member and executive to ask the person who signed it.

From 1874 to 1880 there was a standing committee of Democrats, appointed by the Democratic House, to investigate all Republican books to find out of office. That committee had full power to send for all persons and papers it wanted, and it invented that power without regard to private rights. It sent for a page of record that had accumulated as a private memorandum where there was anything to be found which it was supposed would incriminate a Republican would be to do that committee injustice. They were as unsophisticated a lot of scandal-mongers and rancorous mobs as ever ravaged the dueling-ground.

That was not all. During those years Senator Davis of West Virginia labored on the conviction that there was an unspecified deficit in the Treasury covered up by artistic bookkeeping. It became the investigating. Its hatchet of it day and night, to search out and of course. A Republican Senate gave him all the opportunities he desired, and he asked all that were possible, and every safe and secret from March 4, 1881, was carefully examined, and every book closed was satisfied that the officials had been honest and the bookkeepers correct.

The Democrats have not only had a chance to know, but they have known, and now know, all about the corruption and mendacity of the Government which it is possible to say one to know.

The "change" the Indiana candidate for Vice-President demands means nothing more than to turn out of office men who have honestly and faithfully discharged their duty and put Democrats as more honest or capable in their places, to dismiss Republicans against whom there have been preferred unsatisfactory and adopt men and against whom the charge of which no one can complain. The cry has something in it for all except the thief, and the thief is the Democratic party. Let the Democratic ticket be elected, and the Democratic House of Representatives will have a majority of from ten to fifteen, and it will be the duty of the Democratic majority to investigate the whole Government, and to see that every man who has violated his trust is punished. Let the Democratic ticket be elected, and the Democratic House
